

You're invited to join Jill Seaholm, Head of Genealogical Services, on a Swenson Center tour to Sweden.

12 Days / July 23 – August 3, 2023 (starts & ends in Stockholm)

Swenson Swedish Immigration Research Center
at Augustana College in Rock Island, Illinois

A message from your host.....

Join my husband and me as we travel to our ancestral land of Sweden. Let me show you places of historical significance to the migration from Sweden and of modern Sweden, plus other places I think you'll like, with free time for shopping and exploration.

A little bit about your host.....

Jill Seaholm was born and raised in Moline, Illinois by extreme Swedish-American parents. All of her immigrant ancestors came from Sweden, settling in Rock Island, Henry, & Mercer Counties in Illinois.

Jill's parents took her brother and her to Sweden for the first time when she was 14 and she was completely hooked.

She then went to Augustana and studied Swedish, attending the Augustana Summer School in Sweden, an intensive language course.

She took a term off during her senior year and earned a certificate from AAA's Midwest Travel Institute in Davenport, Iowa, and with her interest in the travel industry, finished her senior year with an Augustana internship at the Sheraton Hotel in downtown Stockholm. During that time, she was able to meet and converse for real with non-English-speaking relatives she had met previously.

Jill lives in Rock Island with her semi-retired husband Dave Garner, and their two semi-spoiled cats.
